REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: No prior art has been found or presented that either teaches or fairly suggests the production of "a thermoplastic material comprising

(a) 5% by weight to 95% by weight of a vulcanized rubber in a subdivided form;

(b) 5% by weight to 95% by weight of at least one heterophase copolymer comprising a thermoplastic phase made from a propylene homopolymer or copolymer and an elastomeric phase made from a copolymer of ethylene with an α -olefin; and

(c) 0% by weight to 90% by weight of at least one α -olefin homopolymer or copolymer different from (b);

the amounts of (a), (b) and (c) being expressed with respect to the total weight of (a) + (b) + (c)," as herein recited and claimed.

The rejection of claim 88 under 35 USC 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention, is hereby expressly withdrawn in view of the amendment to the claim filed 21 August 2009.

The rejection of claims 45-48, 58-60, 64-66, 70-78, 87 and 88 under 35 USC 102(e) as being anticipated by Wang et al (US 6,476,117) is hereby expressly withdrawn since the reference fails to show a heterophase polymer in the context as disclosed and herein claimed. The polymers of Wang et al cannot be a diblock polymer or a sequential polymer. In the specification, Wang discloses a "multiblock" polymer but also discloses that the its invention requires "at least one soft...polymeric segment and at least two hard...polyalkylene segments." The reference at column 2 (lines 24-30) and column 3 (lines 1-6). This passage illustrates that Wang et al can not encompass a "diblock" copolymer but at a minimum encompasses a "triblock" copolymer.

As such, the rejection of claims 45-53, 58-60, 64-78, 87 and 88 under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Wang et al (US 6,476,117) and the rejection of claims 45-88 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wang et al (US 6,476,117) in combination with Ottawa et al (US 4,818,785), are deemed to be untenable, as well, and are hereby expressly withdrawn.

Since there are no other outstanding issues with regard to the clarity or enablement of the claims, these claims are deemed to contain allowable subject matter.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Nathan M. Nutter whose telephone number is 571-272-1076. The examiner can normally be reached on 9:30 a.m.-6:00 p.m..
